

1. Authors

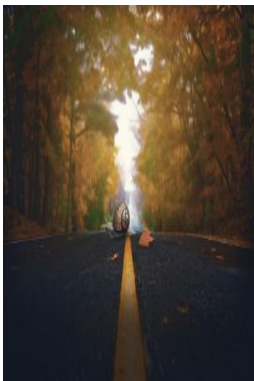

Aurélien Bigo

engineer, researcher

Aurélien Bigo is an engineer in geology with a master's degree in environmental economics (EDDEE), who works as a researcher on the energy transition in transport in France. His thesis aims to study the trajectories of past evolutions in transport emissions and to strengthen the necessary means to reach the target of carbon neutrality by 2050. His research is available at this link.

Projects with the Forum

France's National Low-Carbon Strategy: Can it work without slowing down?

Aurélien Bigo

Publications with the Forum

France's National Low-Carbon Strategy: Can it work without slowing down?

Aurélien Bigo

1 <http://www.chair-energy-prosperity.org/publications/travail-de-these-decarboner-transports-dici-2050/>