

1. Authors

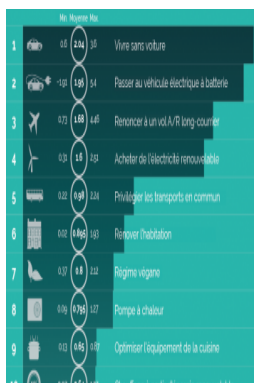

Max Callaghan

Researcher

Max Callaghan is a researcher in the Applied Sustainability Sciences working group. He works on quantitative methods to interpret large collections of scientific research (or “Big Literature”) about climate change with a view to better understanding the science-policy interface, and assisting researchers and assessment makers in synthesising knowledge.

He completed his Master’s degree in Public Policy at the Hertie School of Governance in 2016.

Publications with the Forum

60 consumption options to fight global warming

Diana Ivanova, Dominik Wiedenhofer, Max Callaghan