

1. Authors

Marie-Axelle Granié

Director of Research

Marie-Axelle Granié is a Director of Research at Gustave Eiffel University and Director of the MODIS (Mobilité Durable, Individu, Société) laboratory in the AME department. After a thesis in psychology on the construction of gendered identity in young children, she defended a Habilitation to Supervise Research on Differentiated Socialization to Risk. Her work focuses on gender differences in risk behaviors and the relationship to rules.

Publications with the Forum

The effect of gender on safe and sustainable mobility

Video by Marie-Axelle Granié