

1. Authors

Ali El Zein

Urban planner

Ali El Zein holds a PhD in urban and spatial planning and is a postdoctoral researcher on contract at LAET. His work focuses on the analysis of daily mobility practices and their evolution in the context of health or economic crises. He is currently working on methods for estimating and analyzing residential costs (household budgets devoted to mobility and housing).

Projects with the Forum

A sustained fall in post-COVID car use? The case of the Lyon metropolitan area

Stéphanie Vincent, Olivier Klein, Ali El Zein, Pascal Pochet, Adrien Beziat

Publications with the Forum